NEW PUBLICATIONS

PRINTED FOR

JAMES RIDGWAY,

York Street, St. James's Square.

The following political Publications are in the order in which those ideas of free societies have been gradually developed which now agitate Europe, and menace despotism, civil and ecclesiastical.

THE THIRD EDITION, Price 2s. 6d.

LETTERS ON POLITICAL LIBERTY, on the difference of constitutional and legislative Powers; on the nature of Representation; and on the false Principles of the English and Irish Projects of Reform.

This Pamphlet was published in 1782, and the Author is the first who suggested those Plans of arranging and organizing Societies into activity and the faculty of expressing a will; which are now the subjects of experiment and discussion through Europe.

THE SEVENTH EDITION, Price 4s. 6d.

LESSONS to a YOUNG PRINCE by an OLD STATESMAN, on the prevailing Disposition in Europe to a general Revolution.

In this Work, the attention of a young and dissipated Personage is very forcibly directed to the subjects which agitate Europe; the Organization of free Communities is illustrated by Diagrams, which familiarly demonstrate the first Principles of political science, and clearly distinguish constitutional and legislative Powers.—By way of removing rubbish around his structure, the Author bestows some castigation on those

those who mislead the Prince; on the prostituted instruments of all parties; and particularly on Mr. Edmund Burke, whom he seems to abhor as a selfish, designing, hypocritical sophist.

CONSTITUTIONAL DOUBTS, on the Power of the two Houses of Parliament to appoint a Third State. Price 1s. 6d.

The same idea of Parliament as a Legislature, and an organized People as Sovereign—runs through this Pamphlet, which is the only one on the subject of the Regency that completely unmasked Mr. Pitt.

SPECIMENS of Ministerial Instructions for all the Addressees that have been, and all that will be, presented to the Right Hon. WILLIAM PITT, and the 'virtuous' and 'uncorrupt' Majorities in both Houses of Parliament, who have voted themselves in Possession of all the Rights of the People, and Privileges of the Crown of England.

The Brokers of a very dishonourable Market are here held up to public Detestation.

FOURTEENTH EDITION—the Fifteenth in the Press.
Price 2s. 6d. of

ROYAL RECOLLECTIONS on a Tour to Cheltenham, Gloucester, Worcester, and Places adjacent, in the Year 1788.

The humor and wit, blended with the Philosophy of this royal Production, have been sufficiently celebrated; and the Publisher can say with satisfaction, it has had the greatest Sale of any Pamphlet in his knowledge this Century.

Shortly will be published the 5th Edition, Price 3s.

An APOLOGY for Professing the Religion of Nature, in the Eighteenth Century of the Christian Era. Addressed to Dr. WATSON, Bishop of Llandaff: And a Liturgy on the Principles of Theism.

The

The Manuscript of this Publication was conveyed to the Publisher, as from the Continent, and with extraordinary Precautions. The Contents startled him; but on mature Consideration and Advice, it appeared to be written with so much Vigour of Genius, Extent of Information, and disinterested Love of Truth, that he thought it would be dastardly and criminal, not to avail himself of the utmost Liberty of the English Press in favour of such a Production. Some small Errors have been continued through all the Editions of this Work, because the Publisher had not Access to the Author.

LETTERS on Love, Marriage, and Adultery, addressed to the Earl of Exeter. Price 2s. 6d.

ADDRESS of the NATIONAL ASSEMBLY to the People of France, shewing what they have already done, and what farther they intend to do. Price 2s.

A Short REVIEW of the ADMINISTRATION of Mr. PITT. Price 1s. 6d.

HEROIC EPISTLE to the KING, Price 1s. 6d.

CRITICISMS ON THE ROLLIAD, Part II. the Authentic Edition, Price 3s. 6d. which, together with the following Articles, will complete the Plan of the Authors, and make two beautiful Volumes Octavo. Namely,

CRITICISMS ON THE ROLLIAD, Part I. Price 3s. 6d.

PROBATIONARY ODES for the Laureatship. Price 3s. 6d. And, POLITICAL MISCELLANIES in Prose and Verse, Price 3s. 6d.

THE EIGHTH EDITION, Price 3s. 6d.

Embellished with his Portrait.

THE LIFE of the LATE JOHN ELWES, Esq. Member in three successive Parliaments for Berkshire, shire, (embellished with his Portrait, etched by Austin), first published in the Paper of the

W O R L D,

By EDWARD TOPHAM, Esq.

Late Captain in the 2d Troop of Horse Guards, and Magistrate for the Counties of Essex and York.

The Life of Mr. Elwes, we believe, has not its parallel. He joined in all the folly and dissipation of the Great at night—and in the day might be seen driving his cattle to Smithfield—At Newmarket he would risk £.7000 on a horse-race, and would travel sixty or seventy miles with no other refreshment than a hard boiled egg and a crust which he carried in his pocket—He has frequently lent large sums of money without even taking a memorandum of the person for it—When riding five or six miles, to save a penny at a turnpike was a great luxury to him—He denied himself the common comforts of life, when it was notorious his property amounted to near a million of money; in short such a mixture of good and evil, we believe, never were centered in any other human being.

The SENTIMENTAL MOTHER, a Comedy, in five Acts; the LEGACY of an OLD FRIEND, and his Last Moral Lesson to Mrs. Hester Lynch Thrale, now Mrs. Hester Lynch Piozzi.

The WIFE gave her hand at the altar to THRALE,
For something she lov'd—and it might be GOOD ALE:
Then married a second, with wishes not fewer,
Who wanted that something possessed by the BREWER.
The answer is this, to the question you put,
She found one ENTIRE, and the other ALL—BUT.

If Publications are to be estimated by their Utility, the Publisher makes no scruple to offer the following Pamphlet among the most important of the present Time:

An Account of Cures by Velnos' Vegetable Syrup, in Disorders classed by the Faculty under various Denominations, but deriving their Origin or Malignity from the Retention or Introduction of morbid Matter into the Habit; from glandular Obstructions;

structions; or from that general Impurity of the Lymph commonly called the Scurvy. By Isaac Swainson, sole Proprietor of the Medicine, and only Successor to M. De Velnos, at No. 21, Frith-Street, Soho, London. Price 1s.

In this Publication, the Mode in which the diseased Lymph, or the Impurity of the Habit, assumes the Forms of Consumption, Asthma, Rheumatism, Gout, Apoplexy, Palsy, &c. &c. is accurately described; and Cases are classed in various Branches springing from the same Root. These Cases are sanctioned by such Names as were never before introduced in a medical Pamphlet.

LETTERS to a Friend on the Properties and Effects of Velnos' Vegetable Syrup. By Isaac Swainson. Price 1s.

HINTS to FAMILIES on the increasing Prevalence of Scrophulas, Asthmas, Consumptions, and Palsies, from the present Method of Treatment in the Measles and Small Pox. By Isaac Swainson, Price 6d.

The NAVAL ATALANTIS, or a Display of the Characters of such Flag Officers as were distinguished during last War. By Nauticus Junior. Part First. Price 4s. in Boards.

The NAVAL ATALANTIS, containing the Characters of the Post Captains who served last War. By Nauticus Junior. Part Second. Price 3s. 6d.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER, a Comedy, in Five Acts.

By MILES PETER ANDREWS, Esq.
As it is performed at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane.
Inscribed to her Grace the Duchess of LEEDS.
The Prologue written by the Duke of LEEDS; the Epilogue by the Author. Price 1s. 6d.
